Company Contact: _____

Purchase Order # _____

Per your request Eagle Metals has firming metal for the following requirement:

Alloy: _____

Metal Value: _____

Fab: _____

Weight: _____

Firm Price: _____

Contract Charge: _____

Release Date: _____

Release Quantity: _____

The aforementioned price(s) and release date(s) are firm and non-negotiable. No cancellation or rescheduling of release dates, order quantities or alloys will be allowed without seller's approval. Eagle Metals Company has entered into a fixed copper futures contract(s) with their mill supplier to provide a firm metal price based upon your request, and both you, our customer, and we are contractually bound to that commitment. In the event of the cancellation or rescheduling of this firm priced order, the buyer agrees to pay, in addition to other applicable cancellation charges, a charge reflecting any decrease in copper value.

Please signify your acceptance of this agreement including the terms and conditions as stated herein by signing and returning a copy of this form immediately which will enable us to enter this agreement and hold the quoted price.
